

JERRY MAGONE, MD, MMM

Educational Background

Medical School

University of Pittsburgh

Residency in Orthopaedic Surgery

The Ohio State University

Medical Management

Carnegie Mellon University

- Masters Degree, Business

Orthopaedic Specialties

- Total joint replacement
- Sports medicine
- General orthopaedics
- Hand and spine treatment

Associations/Organizations

- American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery, Board Certified
- American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons, Fellow
- Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation, Certified Provider

Special Awards and Appointments

Awards

- University of Pittsburgh Senior of the Year, 1978
- The Ohio State University Mallory Coleman Orthopaedic Resident Research Winner

Appointments

- Orthopaedic & Sports Medicine Consultants, Inc., President
- Southwest Ohio Ambulatory Surgery Center, Medical Director
- Past President, West Chester Hospital Medical Staff
- Edgewood High School Team Physician
- Kensington Place Retirement Facility Physician

Personal Interests

Dr. Magone enjoys his family time with his 3 sons. His interests include jogging and flying planes and helicopters. As you might guess based on his schooling background, he is a die-hard Steelers fan. His undergrad and medical school years overlapped the Steelers dynasty of the seventies.